

The Wisconsin Medical Society's Statement of Support for Concussion Legislation

The Wisconsin Medical Society supports state legislation that would require that children and adolescents participating in any and all organized sports activities who have symptoms consistent with concussion cannot return to play or practice without written permission from a properly trained health care professional.

The Wisconsin Medical Society supports local and statewide efforts that would increase concussion education for health care professionals, parents, children, adolescents and athletic coaches participating in any and all organized sports activities.

May 2011

